

Public Ledger

DAILY EDITION SUNDAY.
THOMAS A. DAVIS,
EDITOR AND OWNER.

OFFICE—Public Ledger Building No. 19, 2nd Street.
SUBSCRIPTIONS—IN ADVANCE.
One Year $1.00
Six Months .60
Three Months .35
DELIVERED BY CARRIER.
For Month .15
Parable to carrier at end of month.

TO ADVERTISERS.
Advertising rates uniform and reasonable and made known on application at the office.

Subscribers who fail to get their paper regularly will receive a favor by reporting such at the office.

WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

BRADLEY!

Kentucky's Own Son for President.

BRADLEY'S CURRENCY PLATFORM.

"I am opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, believing it would destroy the national property. The gold dollar is the best dollar, and I am in favor of making every other dollar equivalent to it in value. I am the friend of silver, and believe it can be best protected by holding it down in such bounds as will insure its parity with gold as a circulating medium."—W. O. BRADLEY.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

The Republicans of Mason county are requested to meet in Convention at the Courthouse in Mayville on April 15th, 1906, at 1 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Congressional Convention of the Ninth District, to be held in Mayville on Tuesday, April 16th, at 10 a. m., and by the District Convention to be held at the same place immediately upon the adjournment of the Congressional Convention.

Also to select delegates to the State Convention to be held at Louisville April 15th, 1906. The District Convention is for the purpose of selecting two delegates from the Ninth Congressional District to the National Republican Convention, to be held at St. Louis June 16th. Every Republican is respectfully invited.

D. P. Orr, Chairman.
Sam T. Hickman, Secretary.

THERE is just now a spirited revival of third term talk, with Mr. G. CLEVELAND, Esq., as the third term, and as GROVER has put about every other office under the Silver Service, why doesn't the old dunder include the Presidency in the list? That would perpetuate him in office and avoid the possibility of any future "pernicious activity" such as is now going on throughout the country in the contest for the nomination.

THE deficiency in Uncle Sam's Treasury continues to flourish like a green bay horse. For the first nine days of April it was $3,708,874 95; for the fiscal year $2,519,577 16, and for the Cleveland Administration $137,128,000 92.

THE Republican plurality of 11,278 in Rhode Island breaks the record, with the exception of the year 1902, when a Republican War Governor was elected without opposition. The first straw of 1906 comes from a small state, but it is significant.

Naturally fair complexioned would be the rather than the exception, as unfortunately it is at present, if the ladies would wholly abandon cosmetics and more generally keep their faces pure and vigorous by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the only reliable blood purifier.

Books are now open for subscription to the Sixth Series of the People's Building Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, commencing May 25, 1906. Call on Robert L. Baldwin, Secretary, John Duley, Treasurer, or any of the Directors.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by J. Jas. Wood, Druggist.

KENTUCKY NEWS.

The Latest News From All Parts of the Commonwealth.

THE MISSING HEAD.

Attorney for the Prosecution in the Jackson Case Knows What Was Done With It.
NEWPORT, Ky., April 13.—The attorney for the prosecution in the Scott Jackson case claim they have absolute knowledge and proof of where the head of Peter Gray was secured, as well as by whom it was disposed of and the time and exact manner of disposing of it. When this is testified to the case will be completed. Col. Nelson admits that he has this testimony, but in fairness to the prosecution he asks that the details be withheld from publication.

Col. Nelson says he does not desire to give the defense any more information than is necessary, and for that reason the story of the disposition of the head will not be made public until the facts are testified to on the witness stand.

Lord Beaufort Convicted.

RAIDSTOWN, Ky., April 13.—"Lord" Darnley Beaufort was convicted of the infamous charge against him, and was sentenced to 30 days' confinement in the county jail and to a fine of $200. This is a conviction in only one case, and there are yet to be tried. As the law limits the punishment in such cases to fine and jail sentence, it is thought that Beaufort will be tried on each count on the completion of the sentence on a previous count.

Messias Glorified.

FRANKFORT, Ky., April 13.—The state penitentiary presented an unusual appearance Sunday with the annual appeal filled to overflowing with patients with the measles. The disease has prevailed here since last week and over 500 convicts are down with it. All the beds and cots in the hospital are occupied and the chapel and other vacant rooms are being utilized.

Bank Clerk Disappears.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 13.—James S. Johnson, a clerk in the bank of commerce of this city, has disappeared and his accounts with the bank are short about $10,000. He had charge of the Louisville & Nashville railroad account and the money was taken with the aid of an accomplice in the office of the auditor of the road. The money was lost on the horses.

To Have a New Court-House.

SHEPHERDSTOWN, Ky., April 13.—Ball county is to have a new courthouse in the near future. The old courthouse having been condemned by the grand jury, an edifice costing $25,000 is proposed. The present courthouse built in 1850, and is entirely too small for Bullitt's increasing litigation. New clerks' offices will also be built.

Lee County for Carriage.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 13.—The democrats of Lee county held an enthusiastic meeting and organized a democratic club, called the Carriage Club. Strong resolutions were adopted endorsing the principles of the party as advocated by Secretary Carlisle. Three hundred members were enrolled.

Bullitt's Peach Crop Safe.

SHEPHERDSTOWN, Ky., April 13.—The peach crop here, which promises to be large, is considered safe from frosts and freezes, and the fruit growers are feeling good. Bullitt is the banner peach grower in this county, and a large crop will bring $100,000 into the county.

Paid Their Fee.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., April 13.—Twenty-two attorneys have paid the fee to conduct the democratic primary for the different county offices on the 25th instant. Ten for clerk, three for attorney, two for jailer, three for assessor, two for surveyor and two for sheriff.

Well-Known Hotel Proprietor Dead.

MIDDLEBURG, Ky., April 13.—A. V. Conner, aged 52, died at Yosemite of Bright's disease. He was proprietor of the Green River hotel of that place, and was a soldier of the Mexican war. This leaves only two members of the Mexican war in this county.

Increased the Levy.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., April 13.—The fiscal court of Scott county, increased the levy for county purposes for the ensuing year to 51 1/2 cents on the $100; added to the state tax of 4 1/2 cents makes the total rate 56 cents.

Newspaper Dead.

SHELBYVILLE, Ky., April 13.—The Kentucky Outlook, the republican paper which has been published here since last July, has given up the ghost, and there will be no issue hereafter.

Protracted Meeting on the Street.

NICHOLASVILLE, Ky., April 13.—Evangelists Kiri and Morgan, of Buffalo, are holding a protracted meeting here, and are utilizing the streets as a place.

Laurel for Bradley.

LONDON, Ky., April 13.—Laurel county, 14 delegates, instructed for Bradley. The district convention was held at London Tuesday.

Child Killed by the Cars.

WINCHESTER, Ind., April 13.—The two-year-old son of James Wells, who lives near the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad at K. U. Junction, wandered out on the track and was run over by a freight train. Both legs and one arm were cut off, and the child died in a short time.

Child Killed by the Cars.

WINCHESTER, Ind., April 13.—The two-year-old son of James Wells, who lives near the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad at K. U. Junction, wandered out on the track and was run over by a freight train. Both legs and one arm were cut off, and the child died in a short time.

Iowa Legislature Adjourns.

DES MOINES, Ia., April 13.—The Iowa legislature adjourned Saturday in response to an appeal from a committee of the members, Geo. Drake, speaker, and the legislature adjourned on an extra session to codify the laws on the second Tuesday in January next.

Wants $100,000 Damages.

BROWNSTOWN, Ind., April 13.—Frank H. Gates, of Seymour, has filed suit against the Baltimore and Southern railroad for $100,000 damages. He was a freight conductor and while making a coupling lost one of his arms.

A FORECAST

Of Business to Be Transacted in Congress During the Week.

The Naval and Indian Bills to Be Considered in the Senate.
FORTIFICATION BILL WILL BE UP—The contested election case of Goodwin vs. Cobb will be considered by the House—Also Appropriation Bills.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—As soon as the Indian bill is disposed of in the Senate, Mr. Hale will call up the naval bill which was reported Wednesday last. Incidentally there will be a variety of questions called up during the morning hour. Monday Mr. Chandler, according to notice, will speak on the Dapout election case and will probably be followed by Mr. Gray, of Delaware. Mr. Squire has given notice that of Tuesday he will address the senate on the comprehensive bill for the creation of fortifications, reported by his committee some weeks ago. A spirited debate is expected on Wednesday. Mr. Webb having secured unanimous consent to call up on that day his bond-sale investigation resolution.

House bill to reduce the cases in which the penalty of death may be inflicted has been made the special order for Wednesday. Mr. Lodge has given notice that on Thursday he will call up the immigration bill providing for an illiteracy test.

Meanwhile the joint resolution of Mr. Cannon directing the secretary of the interior to open for public entry the Timpachapah reservation, holds its own in the calendar as the unfinished business.

Under the rules of the house Monday is District day, that is, the day set aside for the consideration of matters presented by the committee on affairs of the District of Columbia, but that it will be so devoted is uncertain. Two other matters are pressing for consideration now—the fortifications appropriation bill, and the contested election case of Goodwin vs. Cobb from the Fifth district of Alabama, in which the committee on elections has recommended the seating of the contestant, Goodwin. Judge Daniels, chairman of the committee, gave notice ten days ago that he should ask the house to dispose of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriation, has recommended that the order of business for Monday be the prohibition bill, to favor the fortification bill as the first item, and at the conclusion of its consideration the rest of the day is to be devoted to the consideration of the case Monday, but it is understood that he will not antagonize Chairman Rabcock's bill, which recommends, when the latter moves to take up district business. But Mr. Cannon time-tables and full particulars address N. R. Warwick, Agent, 317 Vine street, Cincinnati, O.